

LINDSEY PANCOL MADINGER
CLERK

Lindsey is a life long resident of Madison County. A 1997 graduate of Anderson High School and a 2001 graduate of Ball State University, Lindsey served over eight years as the Senior Executive Assistant to the President of Ivy Tech Community College. She serves on the board for Women in Philanthropy and is a member of Circle of Ivy, both local organizations meeting the needs of women in our community. She resides in Pendleton with her husband Derek, and together they have 3 children.

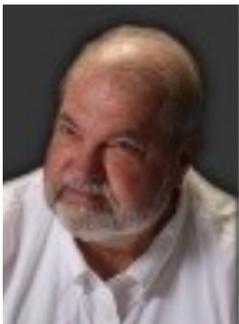

LISA HOBBS
TREASURER

Lisa was born and raised in Madison County. She has proudly served the public for over 18 years at the local and county levels. Lisa has experience in managing budgets, personnel and taxpayer resources through her years as a member of the County Council and as the Recorder. Lisa is married to Randy Hobbs and they have 2 children and 8 grandchildren. They are members of the Life Church in Elwood. Lisa would like to thank you for your support for bid for County Treasurer.

KRISTY DOUGLAS RECORDER

Kristy is a mother of 3 children in south Madison county. While she has previously worked in a recorder's office, she currently works with autistic children in her present occupation. She understands the importance of the county government and will ensure the recorders office is maintained at the highest standard and is brought into the 21st century.

PAUL WILSON
COMMISSIONER

Paul has extensive public safety experience with the Pendleton Police Department, Madison County Sheriff's Department and Adams Township Fire Department. He also has municipal administration experience having served 12 years as a Commissioner and 10 years on the South Madison School Board. Paul is a member of the Fraternal Order of the Police. He and his wife, Gail, reside in Pendleton.

CLAYTON WHITSON
COUNCIL DISTRICT 1

Clayton Whitson is a Firefighter/EMT for the Elwood Fire Department in addition to being on the County Council. On the council, Clayton is a leading advocate for our public safety agencies and remains committed to rebuilding our ageing infrastructure. He serves on the board of directors for the Madison County Mental Health and Addiction Coalition, Leadership Academy of Madison County, and serves as the President of the Elwood Economic Development Commission.

KELLE HUMPHRIES
COUNCIL DISTRICT 2

Kelle is an independent business owner with a reputation as a self-directed individual who uses innovation and common sense logic to get a job done. Kelle's 32 years of healthcare business experience, entrepreneurial mindset, and understanding of the importance of budgetary control, position her well for the County Council. Kelle has served as Assistant District Director of the American Legion Riders and volunteers for the Frankton Heritage Days Festival.

FRED REESE
COUNCIL DISTRICT 3

Fred is known as a man of integrity, dedication, and commitment. He is a lifelong resident of Anderson where he resides with his wife Sandra. Fred has a business degree and work experiences in labor UAW 662 and the Madison County Courts. As former Park Superintendent, Mr. Reese improved the parks by increasing services and programs with a balanced budget.

KIMBERLY BELL
COUNCIL DISTRICT 4

Kimberly is a long life resident of Madison County, where she lives with her husband Brian Bell and two children. She is a graduate of Pendleton Heights and holds a degree in corrections as well as a dual-degree from Ball State in early childhood and primary education. She worked 10 years at the Madison County Sheriff's Dept. in the jail division. She currently owns and operates Fall Creek Academy in Pendleton.

TOWNSHIP TRUSTEES

JOHN BOSTIC / Anderson

AMIE HOOD / Monroe

CHAD KELICH / Duck Creek

MARIAN DUNNICHAY / Pipe Creek

FRED GASKILL / Fall Creek

DIANE LAWThER / Stony Creek

STEPHEN ANDERSON / Lafayette

PROGRESS IS MANDATORY

DEMOCRAT 2018

 FORWARD TOGETHER ***

CAST YOUR VOTE NOVEMBER 6TH

OUR TEAM

A diverse group of leaders excels at making a difference. Our team includes experienced trailblazers and energetic new faces to the party and we're ready to go to work to make Madison County an even better place to live, work and play.

WE BELIEVE

in equal opportunity for all citizens.

in rewarding honest, hard work with a living wage.

in quality education that gives all citizens the opportunity to reach their potential.

that individual strengths in our diverse population are a benefit to our communities.

We believe in Madison County.

KEY NUMBERS & DATES

COUNTY CLERK / 765-641-9443

ELECTION ROOM / 765-641-9459

VOTER REGISTRATION / 765-641-9657

Aug 4 - First day to return absentee applications

Sept 22 - First day absentee ballots are mailed

Oct 9 - Last day to turn in voter registration

Oct 10 - First day to vote in person

Oct 29 - Last day absentee ballots are mailed

Nov 5, noon - Last day for homebound absentee apps to be returned

Madison County Democrat Headquarters

18 West 8th St., Anderson, IN 46016
765.642.0840

democratsofmadisoncounty.com
indianavoters.com

JOE DONNELLY

U.S. SENATE

Senator Donnelly is honored to represent the State of Indiana in the U.S. Senate. Since 2013, more than 35 of Joe's provisions have been signed into law, including efforts to improve military mental health, combat the opioid abuse epidemic, and help veterans. Previously, he served the 2nd Congressional District of Indiana in the House of Representatives and was first elected in 2006. Joe was reelected in 2008 and 2010 before being elected to the Senate in 2012.

DEE THORNTON

U.S. CONGRESS

Dee has been at the forefront of the civil rights movement her entire life - from being one of the first children to attend a desegregated school, to earning herself an athletic scholarship. She was part of the first wave of Title IX beneficiaries, completed a STEM degree, and climbed the ladder at Xerox becoming an accomplished executive. She's owned a small business and currently helps female entrepreneurs grow their own businesses.

TIM LANANE

STATE SENATE #25

Tim Lanane has been a leading advocate for consumers, children, and working men and women during his time in the Indiana Senate. He has served as Leader of the Senate Democratic Caucus since 2012. Senator Lanane's legislative initiatives include bills protecting victims of sexual assault and student athletes, creating jobs, and reforming the legislative redistricting process.

DAVE CRAVENS

STATE SENATE #26

Dave has a variety of professional experience including 10 years in corporate management at Coca-Cola, 25 years as a small business owner, 18 years as a professional firefighter and 6 years of hands-on government and municipal involvement. He currently serves as the Fire Chief for the City of Anderson. Dave has worked with state boards of accounts dealing with multi-million dollar budgets for local government and has a record of job creation with fortune 500 companies.

TERRI AUSTIN

STATE REPRESENTATIVE #36

Terri was born and raised in Madison County. Before joining the legislature, she served as an educator for 30 years. Her legislative accomplishments include authoring Indiana's first criminal human trafficking law, Indiana's first law protecting small business from government red tape and legislation protecting Hoosier patients from abusive health insurance practices. Terri has been recognized by statewide organizations for her work in economic development, jobs and workforce development. She is active in several community organizations and attends Park Place Church of God.

MELANIE WRIGHT

STATE REPRESENTATIVE #35

Melanie is a teacher at Daleville Community Schools. She holds a Bachelor of Science in Music Education; a Master of Education in Curriculum and Instruction; and an administrative license. As State Representative for House District 35, she serves as the ranking minority member for Agricultural and Rural Development. She also serves on the Family, Children, and Human Affairs and the Ways and Means Committees. Melanie prides herself on her collaborative efforts and believes that local control is vital in representing a district at the Statehouse.

SCOTT MELLINGER

SHERIFF

Scott has served in law enforcement for 35 years - including 3 terms as your Sheriff and as Executive Director of the Indiana Law Enforcement Academy. He's known for his collaboration with community agencies to fight illegal drug use and to develop drug rehabilitation programs and programs to help those with mental illness. He's a recipient of the 2018 Sagamore of the Wabash award and the Robert Shoemaker Community Image award.

ROSEMARY KHOURY

JUDGE - CIRCUIT COURT 3

Deputy Prosecutor Rosemary Khoury was raised on Arrow Avenue in Anderson by her single mother, Mary Hamer, a proud General Motors retiree after thirty years of employment. Mother of two amazing boys, Rosemary graduated from Madison Heights, Ball State, and IU Law School. Rosemary served six years in the U.S. Army Reserves as a Private First Class, completing boot camp at Fort Dix in New Jersey. The depth of her professional legal experience includes private practice and state, county, and city government positions.